Exploration Manager Appointment

Lithium Consolidated Ltd ("Lithium Consolidated", "Li3" or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Sally Bevington as Exploration Manager to lead our exploration activities.

Sally's appointment coincides with our plans to accelerate exploration activities at our lithium exploration assets in Mozambique and Zimbabwe.

Sally graduated with her BSc (Hons) in Geology from the University of Cape Town in 1997. She joined Anglovaal Mining in 1998 where she was involved in exploration, feasibility projects and business development for base and precious metals in South Africa. She was involved in platinum and chrome projects that lead to mine development as well as a number of grass roots exploration projects. During this time, she completed her Graduate Diploma in Engineering at the University of the Witwatersrand. In 2005 she moved into the energy coal sector with BHP Billiton where she was involved in resource management and project development in both South African and South American assets. In 2008 she moved into the junior exploration industry where she spent six years running a platinum exploration company, NuPlats, in South Africa. She has spent the last four years in private equity managing mining and exploration investments in Africa in a variety of commodities.

Commenting on the appointment, Shanthar Pathmanathan, Chief Executive Officer of the company said:

"We are delighted that Sally has decided to join our company. Sally is a high-calibre geologist with exceptional experience, working across multiple jurisdictions and commodities in Africa. Sally will play an important role in advancing our lithium assets in Africa and elsewhere."
