

ASX Announcement

10 April 2017

Lithium Consolidated Mineral Exploration Limited (the “Company”)

FIRPTA Withholding of Tax Payment on United States Real Property Interests

Further to the Company’s announcement on 27 March 2017 concerning a secured loan to be made by it to each of Big Smokey Exploration LLC and ProspectOre LLC (the “Vendors”), the Company announces that it has advanced that loan by paying an amount of withholding tax of US$289,065 (A$383,206) to the United States Internal Revenue Service on 7 April 2017.

The Foreign Investment in Real Property Tax Act of 1980 (“FIRPTA”) required the company to pay withholding tax on the consideration payable by it to the Vendors for its acquisition of an 80% interest in each of the Tonopah Lithium and Teels projects.

Further details of the terms of that secured load deed as well as the terms of the security are set out in its earlier announcement on 27 March 2017.
